

BA-2514

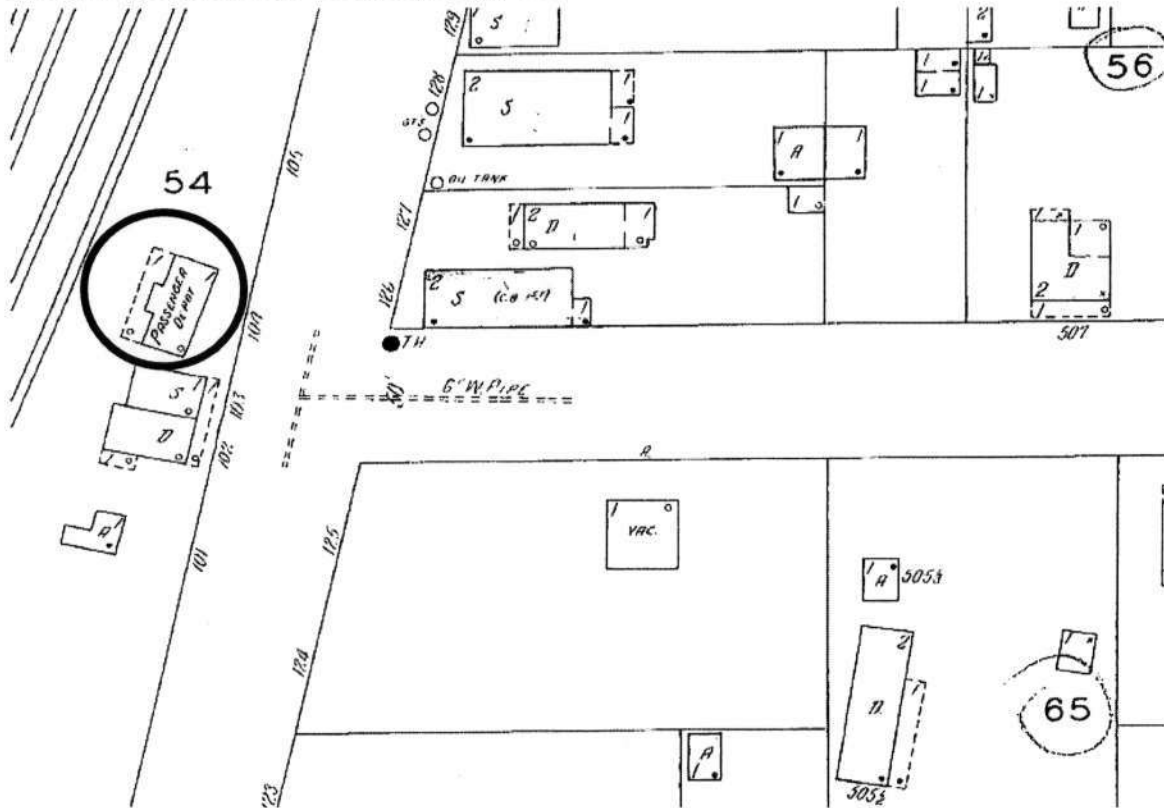

LANSDOWNE B. & O. STATION - 1892 - Hammonds Ferry Road, Lansdowne. Small frame train station in the simplified Queen Anne, late Victorian style preferred by the B. & O. Designed by the railroad's favorite architect for stations, E. F. Baldwin of Baldwin and Pennington. Later altered in the 20th century. Reported as surviving in 1992 by Herbert H. Harwood in talk before the Baltimore County Historical Society. Photo in The Impossible Challenge, p. 129.

BA-2514

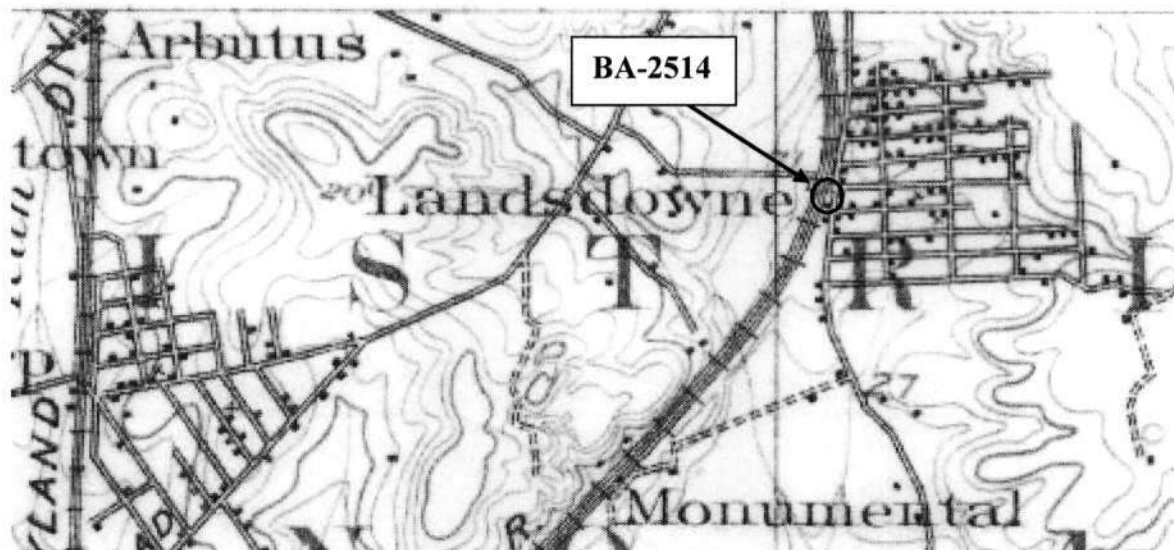

Lansdowne B&O Station

104 Hammonds Ferry Road (in 1929), Halethorpe

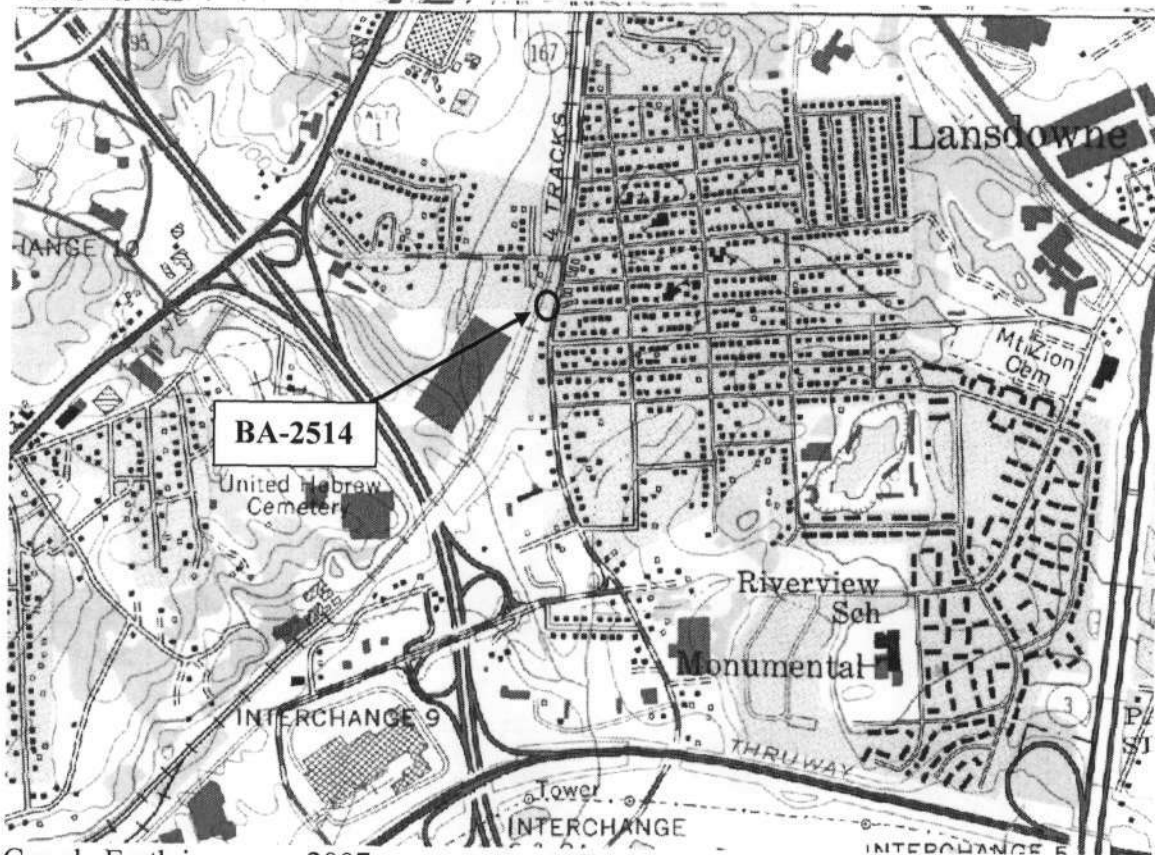

Sanborn Fire Insurance Company map, 1929

Relay 15' quad, 1907 (Surveyed 1902 and 1905)

BA-2514
Lansdowne B&O Station
2700 block Hammonds Ferry Road, Halethorpe
Relay Quadrangle

Google Earth image, c. 2007

Tax Map 109, p. 531

